IRFRC 2017 Annual Conference Call for Papers

New Applications of Actuarial Science in Managing Risks Singapore, 29 - 30 June 2017

General Information

The Insurance Risk and Finance Research Centre (www.irfrc.com) invites high-quality research in insurance and actuarial science for its annual conference. The theme of this year's conference is "New Applications of Actuarial Science in Managing Risks". Under the conference's broad theme, the conference will welcome papers that address topics include (1) cyber risks, (2) longevity risk and ageing, (3) long-term investment products, (4) catastrophe risks and extreme weather. Papers with a focus on the Asia-Pacific insurance industry are especially welcome.

This conference is co-organized with The Geneva Association and is sponsored by SCOR and the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries' Actuarial Research Centre. The conference will include both plenary session with invited talks by industry leaders and academic paper presentations.

The IRFRC invites researchers to submit papers for presentation at this conference. The Scientific Committee will review paper submissions and select those for presentation at the conference.

Funding

The IRFRC will provide partial financial support to overseas presenters whose papers are accepted for presentation. University guidelines apply.
